HarvestIR NON-EXCLUSIVE DISTRIBUTION LICENSE
(Version 1.1)

Summary: The University of the Fraser Valley (UFV) maintains an open access institutional repository called HarvestIR for published and unpublished material created by members of the UFV community. HarvestIR is part of the British Columbia Digital Repository Network (Arca).

By signing this License, you give UFV and Arca the non-exclusive right to copy, distribute, and transmit your Submission over the Internet through HarvestIR on the terms set out below. Visitors to the HarvestIR site will be permitted to use your Submission for non-commercial purposes, as set out in greater detail below. You may assign different licensing terms to govern how HarvestIR visitors may use your Submission (please consult with HarvestIR staff).

The rights you grant to UFV and Arca under this License will last in perpetuity. References to HarvestIR and Arca include any successor repositories designated by either UFV or the BC Digital Repository Network.

This License grants UFV significant rights and contains important limitations on your rights to your work. Please read it carefully.

1. Your Submission. Your Submission is the material described below and includes the abstract, associated descriptive information, and any other information you have submitted to HarvestIR in association with that material.

2. Representations and Warranties. You represent and warrant that:

   a) all information you have provided about the Submission is, to the best of your knowledge and belief, accurate;

   b) if the Submission has more than one author, all co-authors have approved the Submission and have read and agreed to the terms of this License;

   c) if the Submission is based upon work that has been sponsored or supported by an organization other than UFV, you have fulfilled any right of review and any other obligations required by the agreement with such sponsor or supporter;

   d) the Submission is not subject to any publication delays, except those approved in accordance with the HarvestIR Institutional Repository Policies;

   e) to the best of your knowledge, the use and distribution of the Submission as contemplated in this License will not infringe the copyright or any other intellectual property rights of any other person;

   f) if the Submission contains material for which you do not hold copyright and which is not in the public domain,

      (i) you are validly exercising an exception to copyright infringement in accordance with the Copyright Act, or you have obtained the permission of the copyright owner(s) to use the material as contemplated in this License and retained records of such permission; and

      (ii) that such third-party owned material is clearly identified and acknowledged within the text or content of the Submission;

   g) the Submission does not contain any confidential or proprietary information belonging to others; and

   h) the Submission does not, to the best of your knowledge and belief, contain any libelous or other unlawful matter and does not violate anyone’s right to privacy.

You acknowledge that UFV and HarvestIR staff have not and will not independently review the Submission. You further acknowledge that UFV is relying upon the representations and warranties you have made above.

If, at any time hereafter, you learn that any of the foregoing statements are inaccurate, you must contact HarvestIR staff and UFV immediately.
3. Grant of License. In consideration of UFV preserving your Submission in perpetuity in HarvestIR, you hereby grant to UFV the non-exclusive, world-wide, perpetual, and royalty-free right to use, reproduce, display, convert, sublicense and distribute, in any format and any medium, your Submission, for the following purposes:
   a. uploading and storing your Submission;
   b. publishing the Submission electronically on the Internet via HarvestIR, which means making your Submission available to the public by telecommunication so that they may view and download your Submission, subject to the public access terms described in Section 5;
   c. converting your Submission to any medium or format for the purposes of security, back-up, preservation and use of the Submission in accordance with this License; and
   d. authorizing third-parties to perform any of UFV’s rights described in this Section, on UFV’s behalf.

   If you are submitting a graduate thesis, your grant of rights described above is irrevocable and includes, for great certainty, UFV authorizing Library and Archives Canada to copy, display, publish, communicate, archive, convert into any format, and make your thesis available to the public online or in paper form, all for non-commercial purposes.

4. Publication of your Submission. This License does not affect the ownership of copyright—you maintain whatever rights you have in the Submission. In addition, this License does not contain a waiver of your moral rights to your Submission. However, you have granted important rights to UFV and visitors to HarvestIR and Arca, and, therefore, you agree that if you grant others copyright ownership or a license, it will be consistent with the rights you have granted under this License. For example, if you wish to publish your Submission in a journal, you will inform the publisher of the rights you have granted under this License and not agree to terms that restrict those rights.

5. Terms of Access by the Public. UFV will make a digital copy of your Submission available in HarvestIR for the public to view and copy for non-commercial purposes, only, without prior permission or charge, provided that your Submission is not altered in any way and is properly acknowledged, including citing the author(s), title and full bibliographic details. (Note: this corresponds to the Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs, or CC BY-NC-ND Creative Commons license) UFV may, in its discretion, make your Submission available pursuant to a Creative Commons license (or other licencing platform), on similar terms. If you wish to assign different license terms to your Submission (for example, a different Creative Commons license), you must inform HarvestIR staff as part of the submission process to HarvestIR, and the terms of that license shall apply to your Submission. Public access to your Submission may be withheld for an agreed upon period of time: see the HarvestIR Institutional Repository Policies for applicable policies and processes.

6. Attribution. UFV will attribute the Submission as you have indicated in Section 1 or as you may notify UFV from time to time, and not alter the Submission except as allowed by this License or with your prior permission.

7. HarvestIR Institutional Repository Policies. You acknowledge and agree that you have read and understood the HarvestIR Institutional Repository Policies, and that your Submission complies with those policies. You acknowledge that the HarvestIR Digital Repository Policies may be amended from time to time and that the then current policies will apply to your Submission. In particular, you acknowledge and agree to the policies regarding UFV’s right to withdraw public access to your Submission.

8. Release and Indemnification. You agree that you will not hold UFV responsible for any use or misuse of your Submission by third-parties who access the Submission through HarvestIR. You agree to indemnify and hold UFV harmless against any loss, damage, claim, liability, settlement cost or expense (including legal fees) incurred by UFV and arising out of or in connection with UFV’s use of your Submission pursuant to this License, and, for greater certainty, any of the statements in Section 2 being inaccurate.

I have read, understand and agree to the terms set out in this License. This License may be delivered and/or stored by electronic means, and such electronic copy delivered to and stored by UFV will be deemed to be the official record of this License.
